SYMPTOMS OF BAD BLOOD

There is a popular belief that every boil is worth many times its weight in gold, and the sufferer patiently, even cheerfully, endures the pain under the mistaken idea that these little tormentors are health promoters; that they thin the blood when too thick, and cleanse and cool it when too hot or too rich. On the contrary, boils and carbuncles are evidence of blood poverty, or a fearfully depraved condition of that fluid. There may be no external evidence of bad blood until the warm days of spring set in motion the sluggish circulation and the pent-up impurities; unable to escape through the natural outlets, gather near the surface of the skin, and a Carbuncle or a Boil is the result. When the blood is burdened with an undue amount of this impure matter, the Boils come in greater number, eat deeper into the surrounding flesh, and, being nearly always located on a bed of nerves, cause the most intense suffering. Robust and apparently healthy people are subject to Boils, and there is always some hidden agency at work within the blood and system that will eventually undermine the health, but those whose constitutions are broken down by previous sickness or other causes, are most often the unhappy victims of Boils and Carbuncles. Exposure to the deadly malaria destroys the red corpuscles and reduces the blood to such a weak and watery condition that it succumbs to the boil-producing poisons, and the pale and sallow "DANOERMOS CARBUNCLES."

Europe may have her Switzer-and, the West its Colorado, the and, the West HS Colorado, the Pacific coast may glory in her Sierra Nevads, and British Columbia in her Cascade range, but nowhere on the face of the earth is there a rethe face of the earth is there a region more picture squery, more charmingly beautiful than the mountain country of western North Carolina, poeticelly known as "The Land of the Sky." It is true there are mountains of greater cievation in each of the localities named, but the greatest canvases in the gallery of art are not the choicest gems, nor is the beauty of nature to be meaured on geodetic lines. Where the mountain ranges of the West are rangeed, barren and foolidding, those rugued, barren and forbidding, those in Western North Carolina are rob-ed in deep hued forests to their highest summits. Where the greanigness summits. Where the greater peaks of the Sierra Nevada frown, those of "The Land of the Sky" smile through banks of tho-do endrons and azaleas. Where the valleys of the one are rocky and impassable gorges, in the other they are fera-carpeted forest labyrinths, through which crystal streams tumbie merrily along over moss-grown rocks in their race to the open. Picture in your mind a region where range after range of heavily forested mountains parallel each other like waves of the sea, where ver streams murmur unceasingly. Imagine an air so light and pure that breathing itself seems a new-found joy; then throw over all a canopy of bluest of Italian blue, and you have "The Land of the

It is to be regretted that the resources of Kentucky are not at the present time being developed so as to take advantage of the engineering training received by Kentucky boys at the State institution. It is a matter of pride, however, to know that Kentucky young mean are going to almost every State in are going to almost every State in are going to almost every State in the union and taking up engineer-ing work of the very highest type. The technical education a young man receives at the State College fits him for a definite purpose in life and the readiness with which the graduates secure positions in-dicates the uncrowded condition of the engineering field of labor.
